Residential Energy Savings Loan Program Provisions

This Program divides loans into four categories based on the amount of the loan:

Level 1: $999 or less, 3 year max term, no more than 1 late payment in last 12 months, all accounts current, collateral is the electric service

Level 2: $1,000 to $2,499, 5 year max term, no more than 1 late payment in last 12 months, all accounts current, proof of income, collateral is the electric service

Level 3: $2,500 to $4,999, 5 year max term, no more than one late payment in last 12 months, all accounts current, proof of income, credit check; collateral is electric service

Level 4: $5,000 to $25,000, 10 year max term, no more than one late payment in last 12 months, credit-check with debt to income analysis; collateral is lien on property.

Please verify that you meet the following provisions required to participate in the Benton REA Energy Savings Loan Program:

- Applicant must be a Benton REA member
- Residence where the equipment will be installed receives electricity from Benton REA, is owned by the applicant and the account is in the name of the applicant
- All of the member's accounts with Benton REA must be current with no more than one delinquent notice per account in the last 12 months
- For a Level 4 loan, member agrees to allow Benton REA to record the loan as a lien on the dwelling and property as an energy service charge

To apply for this program, the following must be submitted to Benton REA:

- Proof of income – submit a copy of the most recent pay stub and all other pertinent income information with the application
- In cases where a contractor is involved, the bid of the selected contractor
- In cases where a contractor is not involved, documentation of equipment/materials
- Submit a completed application (either the Level 1 form or the Level 2 3 4 Form)

Levels 3 and 4 require an approved credit score ≥ 600 .

Level 4 also requires a monthly debit/income ratio of $\leq 40\%$ and a \$152 county property lien filing fee, which can be paid upfront or added into the loan.

The interest rate is currently 3%. For questions, contact:
